

GOVERNMENT WOMEN'S COLLEGE, SUNDARGARH

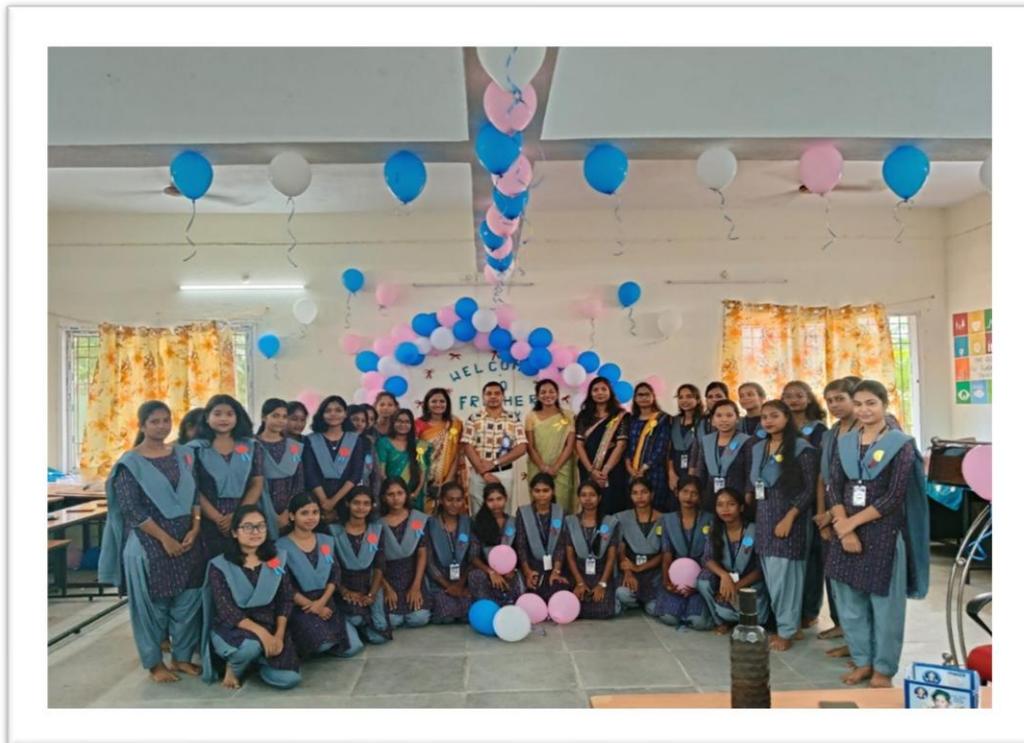

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY

DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITIES (2025-26)

FRESHER PARTY

Date- 08/08/2025

The Departments of Anthropology, Geography, and Psychology jointly organized a Fresher Party on date 08/08/2025 to welcome the new students. The programme was organized to promote interaction between seniors and freshers and to foster a sense of belonging among the students. Various cultural activities and informal interactions made the programme lively and engaging. Faculty members encouraged the students and motivated them to actively participate in academic and co-curricular activities. The programme ended on a positive and cheerful note.

VIRTUAL PARENT TEACHER MEETING

Date-26/09/2025

The parent–teacher meeting was held on 26/10/2025 at 11:00 AM in the Department of Anthropology, Government Women’s College, Sundargarh , with the presence of faculty members Brajeswari Tripathy, Disha Sharma and Dr. Ravi Rahul Chakrawarty. The meeting began with Brajeswari Tripathy introducing the faculty members to all the newly joined members and explaining the overall functioning and objectives of the Department of Anthropology. She emphasized the importance of regular class attendance and advised students not to skip classes after semester examinations, holidays, vacations, or functions. Students were encouraged to actively participate in departmental activities, highlighting that the department exists for their academic growth and development, and they were also instructed to complete all form fill-ups on time without delay. Disha Sharma motivated students to visit the college library regularly and make use of the available books, especially those useful for competitive examinations, and informed them that presenting at least one seminar per semester is compulsory for all students. Dr. R. Rahul Chakrawarty encouraged students to contribute stone tools and artifacts to the department for academic enrichment and assured them that they could approach teachers freely for any academic or personal problems. Towards the end, Disha Sharma interacted with the parents and invited their suggestions, assuring them that any existing issues would be addressed for improvement. The meeting concluded smoothly and was successful.

DEPARTMENTAL SEMINAR

The Department of Anthropology conducts departmental seminars to enhance the academic knowledge, presentation skills, and research orientation of students. These seminars provide a platform for students to present topics related to anthropology, engage in discussions, and develop confidence in public speaking. Faculty members guide and evaluate the presentations, offering constructive feedback for improvement. Regular departmental seminars help create an active academic environment and encourage continuous learning and participation among students.

MEETING ON GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL OF ST/SC & MINORITY STUDENTS

Date- 18/11/2025

The Department of Anthropology conducted an interaction meeting with ST, SC, and Minority students. The purpose of the meeting was to hear their grievances and academic concerns. During the interaction, students were encouraged to express their problems freely related to academics, facilities, and campus environment. The faculty members patiently heard the grievances and provided necessary guidance and assurance for support. No major issues were reported; however, minor concerns raised by the students were noted for further action. Necessary guidance and assurance were provided. The meeting concluded in a positive manner, ensuring continued support and an inclusive academic environment.

NATIONAL COMMITMENT TOWARDS A CHILD MARRIAGE FREE INDIA

Date- 04/12/2025

The Department of Anthropology organized an awareness programme on 4 December 2025 in connection with the national initiative Bal Vivah Mukta Bharat, marking one year of its launch. The programme aimed to sensitize students about the social, cultural, and health consequences of child marriage and to promote collective responsibility towards achieving a Child Marriage Free India by 2030. Students and faculty members participated in viewing the live telecast from Vigyan Bhawan, highlighting the launch of the 100 Days Intensive Awareness Campaign by the Hon'ble Minister of Women and Child Development, Government of India. The session emphasized the role of education, community awareness, and youth participation in eliminating child marriage. The programme concluded with a pledge to spread awareness and support national efforts to protect the rights and well-being of children.

